

Sunnysoft specialists have earned Microsoft Mobile Solutions Competency certification

Sunnysoft has acquired Microsoft Mobile Solutions Competency certification, designed for developers, system integrators and solution suppliers that are able to provide their clients top support for Windows Mobile and Microsoft Exchange Server platforms.

Prague, 8th August 2006 – Sunnysoft has recently earned another prestigious award within Mobile Certified Partner status – Microsoft Mobile Solutions Competency. This qualification is designed for Microsoft partners that are able to provide their clients exceptional solutions enabling them to access information outside office. It then contributes to faster reaction to client needs, increased work efficiency and at the same brings down the costs. Sunnysoft gained the certification for progressive work in mobile solutions and software development in Windows Mobile environment. Mobile solutions and Sunnysoft applications in long term belong to the best in mobile data collecting, software development and language localization development for Pocket PC and Smartphones.

Jaroslav Prchal, director of Sunnysoft development division explains: "Acquisition of Mobile Solutions Competency requires passing demanding tests. Clients are now getting yet another valid information about skills of our development team."
